

Trimester 1 US History Study Guide

The exam will be on Thursday 10/30

You will be composing essay responses to the following questions on the exam. Below are six essay questions. Only three of the six will appear on the final exam.

1. Evaluate the causes and outcomes of the French and Indian War. In what ways did the war change the political, economic, and social relationships between Britain and its American colonies?
2. Discuss the various forms of British taxation on the American colonies, such as the Stamp Act and Tea Act. To what extent did these taxes contribute to the growing dissatisfaction and eventual rebellion among the colonists?
3. To what extent did events such as the French and Indian War, British taxation, the Intolerable Acts, and the battles of Lexington and Concord create a sense of unity among the colonies? How did these events ultimately lead to the decision to declare independence from Britain?
4. New England, Middle, and Southern Colonies: Describe the distinguishing features of the New England, Middle, and Southern colonies. What were the major economic activities, social structures, and religious influences in each region?
5. Examine the effects of the Intolerable Acts on the colonies. In what ways did these laws impact colonial society, and how did they contribute to a growing sense of unity among the colonies against British rule?
6. Assess the ways in which colonial groups like the Sons of Liberty responded to British taxation policies. How did events such as the Boston Massacre and the Boston Tea Party escalate tensions and move the colonies closer to revolution?
