

Trimester 2 US History Study Guide

The exam will be on Tuesday 2/10

You will be composing essay responses to the following questions on the exam. Below are six essay questions. Only three of the six will appear on the final exam.

1. Examine the role of foreign assistance, particularly from France, in the American Revolutionary War. Discuss the motivations of foreign nations to support the American cause and the impact of this assistance on the outcome of the war.
2. Explore the difficulties faced by the newly formed United States under the Articles of Confederation. Discuss issues such as economic challenges, interstate conflicts, and the struggle for a unified national identity.
3. Examine the events leading up to the American Revolutionary War, including the Stamp Act, Boston Massacre, and Boston Tea Party. Assess the role of these events in fostering colonial discontent and the eventual decision to pursue independence.
4. Discuss the major battles of the American Revolutionary War and their significance in shaping the outcome of the conflict. Consider factors such as military strategies, key leaders, and the impact on the quest for American independence.
5. Compare and contrast the perspectives and motivations of Loyalists and Patriots during the American Revolutionary War. Analyze the factors that led individuals to support either side and the challenges faced by those who remained neutral.
6. Evaluate the significance of the Siege of Yorktown in bringing about the end of the Revolutionary War. Discuss the strategies employed by both the American and French forces and the role played by key figures such as George Washington.