

Chapter 2: Florida's Early History

Study Guide

Vocabulary:

Descendant: A person's children, grandchildren, great-grandchildren, and so on

Agriculture: the planting and growing of crops for food

Dugout canoe: a boat made by hollowing out a tree trunk

Shaman: a spiritual figure who performed religious ceremonies and helped sick people

Atlatl: a throwing stick used by the Tocobaga for hunting

Treaty: an official agreement

Expedition: a journey made for a special purpose

Colony: a settlement ruled by another country

Provisions: supplies

Fort: a military settlement surrounded by walls

Artisan: a skilled worker

Fleet: a large group of ships sailing together

Merchants: people who make money buying and selling goods

Mission: a church and settlement where religion is taught

Convert: someone who changes from one religion to another

Artifacts: objects made by people, like pottery

Thatch: plant material, such as straw or palm leaves, that is used to make a roof

Friar: men who performed religious services and taught Catholic beliefs to the Native Americans

Sanctuary: a safe place

Topics

- What different tribes used for transportation and housing
 - Timucua
 - Travel: canoes
 - Housing: longhouses (poles for frame & bark for walls), round homes with palm leaves
 - Apalachee
 - Travel: canoes
 - Housing: mounds, houses made of palm leaves and tree bark
 - Tequesta
 - Travel: dugout canoe, used dugout canoe to fish
 - Housing: round houses with thatched roofs (shells)
 - Tocobaga
 - Travel: canoes
 - Housing: mounds, round houses build with wooden poles, roofs of palm thatches
 - Calusa
 - Travel: dugout canoe, used dugout canoe to fish
 - Housing: houses built on stilts, no walls
- Farming in Florida
 - Juan Ponce de Leon was trying to start a farming community ... sadly, he died from a wound from the Calusa tribe
- King of France
 - Jean Ribault was sent by the King of France to protect Fort Caroline when the Spaniards planned to attack
- Florida's Importance to Spain
 - The coastal settlements protects Spain's treasure fleets
- Treaty of Tordesillas and French's Interest in America
 - The Treaty of Tordesillas divided the America's between Spain and Portugal
 - The French was interested in trying to find a faster route to Asia
- Fort Mose and African Slaves
 - The African Slaves wanted to get to Fort Mose to escape slavery
- Native American Population
 - The Native American population decreased when the Spanish and French brought over disease. They also decreased in population fighting in battles for the Spanish.
- Hernando de Soto
 - Landed in Tampa
 - He was in search of gold but did not find any in Florida
 - First explorer to find the Mississippi River
- Using a photo to answer questions
 - Look at the diagram on page 57 and make inferences about what is going on